

DEGREE PROGRAMS

The Graduate School has 17 colleges offering more than 172 graduate programs.

- Applied Studies
- Arts and Sciences
- Business
- Communication and Information
- Criminology & Criminal Justice
- Education
- Engineering
- Entrepreneurship
- Fine Arts
- Human Sciences
- Law
- Medicine
- Motion Picture Arts
- Music
- Nursing
- Social Sciences and Public Policy
- Social Work

APPLY NOW

CONTACT US

850-644-4723
grad-help@fsu.edu

VISIT US

634 W Call St.
Tallahassee, FL 32306

The Graduate School at Florida State University supports current and prospective graduate students in a multitude of ways. We provide assistance with, admissions, academic matters, advice on University-wide degree requirements, information on the availability of financial assistance including assistantships, fellowships and scholarships, as well as approval for theses and dissertations.

FSU
THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

FSU
GRADUATE SCHOOL

>100 COUNTRIES REPRESENTED

Florida State University is ranked among the worlds top universities and is nationally and internationally recognized for its contributions to science, business, government, culture, and society.

PREEMINENCE

Florida State University has been officially designated as a preeminent research university in the state by the Florida Legislature as a result of having met a set of rigorous benchmarks.

FUNDING

We offer numerous funding opportunities for graduate students such as fellowships, assistantships, financial aid, grants, and scholarships.

DEGREE PROGRAMS

MASTER'S PROGRAMS

DOCTORAL PROGRAMS

SPECIALIST PROGRAMS

CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

Semester	Deadline Date
Spring	November 1st
Summer	March 1st
Fall	July 1st

*Most academic programs have earlier deadlines than established by the University, or may admit only for a specific term. Prospective applicants must contact the academic program for program application studies.

Florida State University is focused on giving students the programs and resources they need to succeed.